

Questions for Homegroups

1 Corinthians 9:24-10:14

- Throughout this passage Paul seems to be warning that not all the Corinthian Christians will be saved:
 - How does this fit with other statements about the security of believers (e.g. Philippians 1:6, Romans 8:29-30)
 - Why might this be important for the Corinthian church and for us?
- What are the marks of someone who can rightly be confident of their salvation?
- This passage is full of warnings. How would you respond to someone who said that this was just so much emotional manipulation?
- What encouragements does Paul give alongside his warnings?
- What one regular habit of your needs to be changed in response to this passage? Pray for one another about this.

Questions for Homegroups

1 Corinthians 9:24-10:14

- Throughout this passage Paul seems to be warning that not all the Corinthian Christians will be saved:
 - How does this fit with other statements about the security of believers (e.g. Philippians 1:6, Romans 8:29-30)
 - Why might this be important for the Corinthian church and for us?
- What are the marks of someone who can rightly be confident of their salvation?
- This passage is full of warnings. How would you respond to someone who said that this was just so much emotional manipulation?
- What encouragements does Paul give alongside his warnings?
- What one regular habit of your needs to be changed in response to this passage? Pray for one another about this.

Questions for Homegroups

1 Corinthians 9:24-10:14

- Throughout this passage Paul seems to be warning that not all the Corinthian Christians will be saved:
 - How does this fit with other statements about the security of believers (e.g. Philippians 1:6, Romans 8:29-30)
 - Why might this be important for the Corinthian church and for us?
- What are the marks of someone who can rightly be confident of their salvation?
- This passage is full of warnings. How would you respond to someone who said that this was just so much emotional manipulation?
- What encouragements does Paul give alongside his warnings?
- What one regular habit of your needs to be changed in response to this passage? Pray for one another about this.