

Questions for Homegroups

The Road to Life
The Trials

Luke 22:66 – 23:25

- What are the charges against Jesus from the Sanhedrin? What do you make of them? What is the significance of Jesus' reply? Why do we need to see today that Jesus is the judge?
- How do we see that Jesus is innocent? In what ways is this important for us?
- What do we learn about humanity? Why do we need to take our sin seriously?
- What do we learn about God's mercy? How is this passage a challenge and an encouragement?

Questions for Homegroups

The Road to Life
The Trials

Luke 22:66 – 23:25

- What are the charges against Jesus from the Sanhedrin? What do you make of them? What is the significance of Jesus' reply? Why do we need to see today that Jesus is the judge?
- How do we see that Jesus is innocent? In what ways is this important for us?
- What do we learn about humanity? Why do we need to take our sin seriously?
- What do we learn about God's mercy? How is this passage a challenge and an encouragement?

Questions for Homegroups

The Road to Life
The Trials

Luke 22:66 – 23:25

- What are the charges against Jesus from the Sanhedrin? What do you make of them? What is the significance of Jesus' reply? Why do we need to see today that Jesus is the judge?
- How do we see that Jesus is innocent? In what ways is this important for us?
- What do we learn about humanity? Why do we need to take our sin seriously?
- What do we learn about God's mercy? How is this passage a challenge and an encouragement?