

HG Questions

Luke 23:26-56

1. Does it seem like a just punishment that Jesus should die for my sin?
2. Why couldn't he have had a less severe punishment?
3. What do Jesus' words in this section reveal about his character and heart towards humanity?
4. There are many different characters in the section. How do the different responses relate to the responses we still see today?
5. If the thief on the cross can be saved, what does it say about who else can be saved?

++++++Slightly trickier question++++++

6. Quite surprisingly Joseph was a member of the Jewish council but he did not agree to the decision. How does this help us read the gospels with a bit more nuance?