

Questions for Homegroups

---

Jonah 3 &4

- If someone asked you to summarise the message of the book of Jonah up to the end of chapter 2, what would you say to them?
- Read over Jonah 3-4. What do we learn about Jonah in this chapter? Can you relate in any way to Jonah's feelings about God in vv.1-3?
- What do we learn about God from his dealings with Jonah in vv.4-11? Think in particular about:
  - The vine and the worm
  - The scorching east wind
  - God's questioning of Jonah
- What picture of God are we left with at the end of the book of Jonah?
- Think of one thing you want to remember from this book and what difference that should make to your Christian life.

Questions for Homegroups

---

Jonah 3 &4

- If someone asked you to summarise the message of the book of Jonah up to the end of chapter 2, what would you say to them?
- Read over Jonah 3-4. What do we learn about Jonah in this chapter? Can you relate in any way to Jonah's feelings about God in vv.1-3?
- What do we learn about God from his dealings with Jonah in vv.4-11? Think in particular about:
  - The vine and the worm
  - The scorching east wind
  - God's questioning of Jonah
- What picture of God are we left with at the end of the book of Jonah?
- Think of one thing you want to remember from this book and what difference that should make to your Christian life.

Questions for Homegroups

---

Jonah 3 &4

- If someone asked you to summarise the message of the book of Jonah up to the end of chapter 2, what would you say to them?
- Read over Jonah 3-4. What do we learn about Jonah in this chapter? Can you relate in any way to Jonah's feelings about God in vv.1-3?
- What do we learn about God from his dealings with Jonah in vv.4-11? Think in particular about:
  - The vine and the worm
  - The scorching east wind
  - God's questioning of Jonah
- What picture of God are we left with at the end of the book of Jonah?
- Think of one thing you want to remember from this book and what difference that should make to your Christian life.