

Questions for Homegroups

Matthew 9:9-17

- What things are opposed to the religion of the Pharisees in this passage? Why do the Pharisees not like what Jesus is doing here?
- In what ways might we find ourselves uncomfortable with the new community that Jesus is inaugurating?
- What does this passage say about Jesus, and what it means to belong to him?
- What do you think is the most important part of this passage for us as a church?
- What needs to change in your life to be more like the disciples in this passage? How does your understanding of your faith need to develop in order to see that happen?

Questions for Homegroups

Matthew 9:9-17

- What things are opposed to the religion of the Pharisees in this passage? Why do the Pharisees not like what Jesus is doing here?
- In what ways might we find ourselves uncomfortable with the new community that Jesus is inaugurating?
- What does this passage say about Jesus, and what it means to belong to him?
- What do you think is the most important part of this passage for us as a church?
- What needs to change in your life to be more like the disciples in this passage? How does your understanding of your faith need to develop in order to see that happen?

Questions for Homegroups

Matthew 9:9-17

- What things are opposed to the religion of the Pharisees in this passage? Why do the Pharisees not like what Jesus is doing here?
- In what ways might we find ourselves uncomfortable with the new community that Jesus is inaugurating?
- What does this passage say about Jesus, and what it means to belong to him?
- What do you think is the most important part of this passage for us as a church?
- What needs to change in your life to be more like the disciples in this passage? How does your understanding of your faith need to develop in order to see that happen?