

Questions for Homegroups

1 Samuel 3

- “1 Samuel 3 is all about the word of God.” Discuss this claim. What do we learn about the importance of God’s word from this chapter?
- Describe the character of Samuel from this chapter. What good attributes does he have? How does he need to grow?
- In what ways is Samuel a good role model for us? What are your strengths and weakness when you compare yourself with Samuel?
- Is Eli a good role model or a bad one? How might the story of Eli affect the way we attitude we have to flawed Christians?

Questions for Homegroups

1 Samuel 3

- “1 Samuel 3 is all about the word of God.” Discuss this claim. What do we learn about the importance of God’s word from this chapter?
- Describe the character of Samuel from this chapter. What good attributes does he have? How does he need to grow?
- In what ways is Samuel a good role model for us? What are your strengths and weakness when you compare yourself with Samuel?
- Is Eli a good role model or a bad one? How might the story of Eli affect the way we attitude we have to flawed Christians?

Questions for Homegroups

1 Samuel 3

- “1 Samuel 3 is all about the word of God.” Discuss this claim. What do we learn about the importance of God’s word from this chapter?
- Describe the character of Samuel from this chapter. What good attributes does he have? How does he need to grow?
- In what ways is Samuel a good role model for us? What are your strengths and weakness when you compare yourself with Samuel?
- Is Eli a good role model or a bad one? How might the story of Eli affect the way we attitude we have to flawed Christians?