

Questions for Homegroups

---

Job's Suffering

- Read Job 1:1-2:10. What strikes you about Job, Satan and God?
- Can you summarise in a sentence what these verses are saying about suffering?
- In what ways does this challenge your view of the world?
- Do these verses help you to understand your own experiences or do they cause more problems?
- In what ways does this portrayal of God challenge popular views about him?
- Job's reaction to his ordeals is extraordinary. Is he a realistic example for us?
- Job has not yet seen Jesus. How might the New Testament teaching about Jesus help us further?
- Prayer: pray for one another's particular struggles in this area that we would have a deeper understanding of God and confidence in him.

Questions for Homegroups

---

Job's Suffering

- Read Job 1:1-2:10. What strikes you about Job, Satan and God?
- Can you summarise in a sentence what these verses are saying about suffering?
- In what ways does this challenge your view of the world?
- Do these verses help you to understand your own experiences or do they cause more problems?
- In what ways does this portrayal of God challenge popular views about him?
- Job's reaction to his ordeals is extraordinary. Is he a realistic example for us?
- Job has not yet seen Jesus. How might the New Testament teaching about Jesus help us further?
- Prayer: pray for one another's particular struggles in this area that we would have a deeper understanding of God and confidence in him.

Questions for Homegroups

---

Job's Suffering

- Read Job 1:1-2:10. What strikes you about Job, Satan and God?
- Can you summarise in a sentence what these verses are saying about suffering?
- In what ways does this challenge your view of the world?
- Do these verses help you to understand your own experiences or do they cause more problems?
- In what ways does this portrayal of God challenge popular views about him?
- Job's reaction to his ordeals is extraordinary. Is he a realistic example for us?
- Job has not yet seen Jesus. How might the New Testament teaching about Jesus help us further?
- Prayer: pray for one another's particular struggles in this area that we would have a deeper understanding of God and confidence in him.