

Questions for Homegroups

1 Peter 1:1-12

- Why do you think that Peter describes his readers as “God’s elect, exiles scattered...”? What do you notice about God’s choosing in verse 2?
- List the reasons that Peter gives for praising God in verses 3-9. Which ones fill you with joy and which don’t? Why?
- In what ways are we more privileged than the prophets or the angels (vv10-12)?
- How do these truths affect your attitude to someone who says “this is a Christian country”?
- How do these truths affect your confidence about your future perseverance as a Christian?
- How do these truths affect your attitude to your trials?
- How do these truths affect your attitude to towards aging and death?
- How could you use these truths to increase your day to day joy?

Questions for Homegroups

1 Peter 1:1-12

- Why do you think that Peter describes his readers as “God’s elect, exiles scattered...”? What do you notice about God’s choosing in verse 2?
- List the reasons that Peter gives for praising God in verses 3-9. Which ones fill you with joy and which don’t? Why?
- In what ways are we more privileged than the prophets or the angels (vv10-12)?
- How do these truths affect your attitude to someone who says “this is a Christian country”?
- How do these truths affect your confidence about your future perseverance as a Christian?
- How do these truths affect your attitude to your trials?
- How do these truths affect your attitude to towards aging and death?
- How could you use these truths to increase your day to day joy?

Questions for Homegroups

1 Peter 1:1-12

- Why do you think that Peter describes his readers as “God’s elect, exiles scattered...”? What do you notice about God’s choosing in verse 2?
- List the reasons that Peter gives for praising God in verses 3-9. Which ones fill you with joy and which don’t? Why?
- In what ways are we more privileged than the prophets or the angels (vv10-12)?
- How do these truths affect your attitude to someone who says “this is a Christian country”?
- How do these truths affect your confidence about your future perseverance as a Christian?
- How do these truths affect your attitude to your trials?
- How do these truths affect your attitude to towards aging and death?
- How could you use these truths to increase your day to day joy?