

Questions for Homegroups

1 Peter 2:4-8

- What are the different ways that the image of a stone is used?
- Why do you think Peter uses this image?
- What does it mean to be “living stones” with Christ as the “cornerstone?” How does that affect your view of church?
- How does God respond to the rejection of Christ?
- What does it mean that those who reject Christ “stumble” or even “fall”?
- If they were destined for these things (v8b) how could that be fair?
- How does this passage affect your view of Christ?
- How does this passage affect your view of evangelism?
- How does this passage affect your view of being a Christian?

Questions for Homegroups

1 Peter 2:4-8

- What are the different ways that the image of a stone is used?
- Why do you think Peter uses this image?
- What does it mean to be “living stones” with Christ as the “cornerstone?” How does that affect your view of church?
- How does God respond to the rejection of Christ?
- What does it mean that those who reject Christ “stumble” or even “fall”?
- If they were destined for these things (v8b) how could that be fair?
- How does this passage affect your view of Christ?
- How does this passage affect your view of evangelism?
- How does this passage affect your view of being a Christian?

Questions for Homegroups

1 Peter 2:4-8

- What are the different ways that the image of a stone is used?
- Why do you think Peter uses this image?
- What does it mean to be “living stones” with Christ as the “cornerstone?” How does that affect your view of church?
- How does God respond to the rejection of Christ?
- What does it mean that those who reject Christ “stumble” or even “fall”?
- If they were destined for these things (v8b) how could that be fair?
- How does this passage affect your view of Christ?
- How does this passage affect your view of evangelism?
- How does this passage affect your view of being a Christian?