

This week we started a short series in Acts 1 as we consider the commission of the disciples (and us) after the resurrection)

Our two points from Acts 1v1-5 were:

1. Know that Jesus really rose again
2. Know that Jesus really will empower you

When are you most likely to feel wobbly on the historicity of the resurrection? What would you say to someone who just described this as 'your truth'?

Why is it so comforting that God has given us *himself* to empower his people to do his work? Do you believe this?

What does it mean that we quench the Spirit? (See 1 Thes 5v19, Eph 4v30, Isaiah 63v10, Acts 7v51)

How do we, and what can we do about it?
