

This week we continued our series in James taking both an honest look inside and a hopeful look to Him:

1. See the horrible depths of your sin
 2. See the beautiful goodness of God
- How do v13-14 counter our natural tendency to blame-shift? What do we learn of God? What do we learn of ourselves?
 - Outline the process in v15, what might that look like in practice?
 - In v16-18 we saw God as being Creator, Constant and Kind (!) - how does each of these descriptions help us in the midst of trials and temptations?
