

Some questions from Sunday's passage:

- What does our Western world think about suffering? Give evidence and examples.
- What would you say the believer who wasn't sure whether it was worth suffering as a believer? What do we learn about God from this passage?
- What reminders does Peter outline to help us persevere through suffering as we follow Jesus? Which one do you find most persuasive?
- What applications does he give us?